

Board of Commissioners of Island County, April Session, A.D. 1853.

First Day.

and the penalty of his bond is fixed at Five Thousand Dollars.

Road from Cowland, to Col. Ebey's claim.

Now come S. N. Ebey and eleven other householders and present to the board their petition for a county road from Cowland to the northwest corner of S. N. Ebey's land claim; and it appearing to the satisfaction of the board that notice of the presenting of said petition has been legally given, the board appoints W. Shaw, S. N. Ebey, & Samuel Crockett, three disinterested householders of the county, viewers of said road, who shall proceed on the 8th instant, to view and layout a county road from Cowland to the northwest corner of S. N. Ebey's land claim.

Road from Cowland, to W. Wallace's claim.

Now come twelve householders of Island County and present their petition for a county road from Cowland to the east side of William Wallace's land claim, and it appearing to the satisfaction of the board that due notice of the presenting of said petition has been given, the board appoints William Wallace, Martin

First Day.

Tafeyou, and John Condora, three disinterested householders, viewers of said roads, who shall proceed on the first Monday of May next, to view and layout a county road from Cowland to the east side of William Wallace's land claim.

Territorial Roads from Snohomis Falls to Walla Walla, and from mouth of Cowlitz River to Olympia.

The Legislative Assembly having authorized the first northern county boards to levy a tax of four mills on the dollar of taxable property for viewing and opening territorial roads from Snohomis Falls to Walla Walla, and from the mouth of Cowlitz River to Olympia; now, the object of the order is to pledge the faith of Island County to levy the July session of the Board of Commissioners a tax of four mills on the dollar of taxable property for said purposes: Provided, the counties named in the act of the Legislature shall signify their acceptance of the terms of said law; and the clerk of this board shall give notice of the action of this board in the premises to the several counties named in said act.