RESOLUTION NO. 1097

The matter of:

Resolution No. 1097, a resolution of the Board of County Commissioners of Island County, Washington, providing for the constructing and equiping to additions to the Island County Courthouse, and repealing Resolution No. 1089 came before the Board. Following discussion, Commissioner Vanderzicht moved that Resolution No. 1097 be adopted. The motion, seconded by Commissioner Christoe, carried. (See microfilmed copies for complete resolution)

RESOLUTION

WHEREAS, on August 7, 1972, we, the Commissioners of Island County, Washington, approved a resolution providing for the construction and equipment of additions to the Island County Courthouse and for funding of the project involved, and,

WHEREAS, it was necessary in such resolution to agree to pledge the general taxing authority of Island County in amounts sufficient to pay the principal and interest on said bonds, and

WHEREAS, there have been many discussions by the Commissioners with interested parties regarding the procedure for funding the above-mentioned bonds, now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Commissioners of Island County, Washington, as follows:

It shall be the policy of the Board of Commissioners of Island County, Washington to annually divert sufficient millage from the Island County Road Fund levy to the Island County Current Expense Fund for the purposes of payment of principal and interest on the above-mentioned bonds.

ADOPTED at a regular open public meeting of the Board of Commissioners for Island County, Washington this 7th day of August, 1972.
